

Electronic Communications Consent

Keep us in your inbox:

Due to Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation, we are restricted in our ability to communicate with you electronically without your consent.

By signing this form, you consent to receiving electronic messages such as e-mail from us (Jeff Black, CFP® & Black's Financial Planning Services Inc.) including messages about our products and services. We seek your consent on our own behalf and on behalf of the businesses identified below. If you are consenting on behalf of a business or organization, this consent allows the messages to be sent to any person that is part of your organization or business.

By signing this form, you are not providing consent to the sharing of any personal or financial information (other than your electronic address) with the joint service providers identified below. Your consent permits those businesses to communicate with you via electronic means in respect of their product and service offers that may be of interest to you based on your unique financial situation. This enables all of us to continue to keep you up-to-date on valuable information and opportunities, including market insights and research, newsletters, promotions, events, new products and special offers in order to serve your financial needs efficiently and effectively.

You will be able to withdraw your consent to receiving certain messages at any time. This consent applies to all electronic addresses provided or that are provided to us from time to time at any time. It will remain valid and in effect until you cancel it – even after our relationship with you has ended.
